

BANOVALLUM SCHOOL

TEACHER OF FRENCH (P/T)

We believe that every student whatever their background has the right to flourish, to achieve and to succeed and everything undertaken by Horncastle Education Trust should have this ambition at its heart.

Horncastle Education Trust comprises four local schools; Banovallum School, Frithville Primary School, New York Primary School and Queen Elizabeth's Grammar School. The Trust was formed from a genuine desire to work more closely together following the success of existing partnership work between the schools. Having both secondary and primary schools that are geographically close is something we take a pride in as a Trust.

Banovallum School require a part-time teacher of French from September 2020. The successful applicant will join a dynamic and popular faculty, teaching Key Stage 3 and Key Stage 4 French as well as being a form tutor. Experience in successful GCSE French delivery is essential in this post. Leaders have placed a high priority on teaching and learning and provide high-quality training for all staff. Teachers are committed to improving their practice and providing the best quality education for all pupils. Consequently, pupils are making faster progress and their attainment is improving. (Ofsted December 2017)

Banovallum is a mixed 11-16 over-subscribed secondary school at the heart of the local community. Relationships between staff and pupils are very positive. Pupils trust their teachers to help them do the best they can. (Ofsted December 2017)

Prospective candidates are strongly encouraged to contact the Headteacher to visit or discuss the post.
